

W.K. Kellogg Manor House

Former estate to cereal magnate W.K. Kellogg, the Manor House was built on the highest point overlooking Gull Lake in 1925-26 and has been restored to its original grandeur.

Whether planning a business meeting, casual reception or elegant social event, the Manor House, terrace and gardens offer unique settings overlooking picturesque Gull Lake.

A KBS Conference Center Event Coordinator will assist you in planning every detail of your meeting or special event.

Manor House tours are available upon request.

Additional facility fees may apply for the Manor House.

W.K. Kellogg Biological Station

Located between Kalamazoo and Battle Creek, Michigan (about 65 miles from the MSU East Lansing campus), the station includes an Academic Center, Conference Center, Bird Sanctuary and Pasture Dairy Research and Education Center.

MSU Southwest Extension and Land and Water Unit are also located at KBS.

KBS Conference Center

The W.K. Kellogg Biological Station Conference Center is part of the W.K. Kellogg Biological Station (KBS), Michigan State University's largest off-campus research and education center.

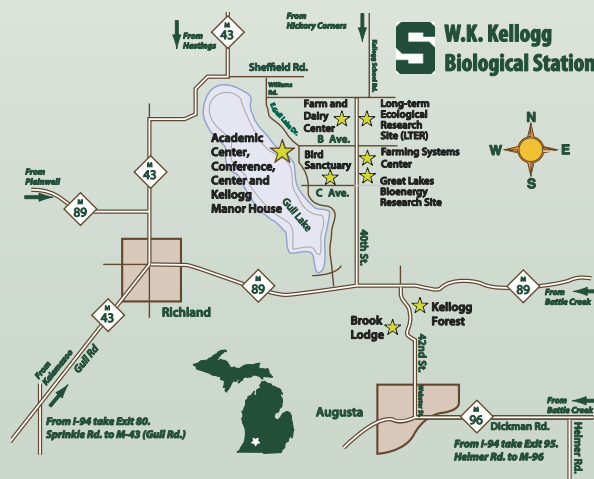

The Conference Center is located on 32 acres of Gull Lake's picturesque shores, the historical summer estate of cereal manufacturer and philanthropist, W.K. Kellogg.

We are a full-service conference center open year-round to serve your conference and meeting needs. Conferences, workshops and business meetings can be very productive in this relaxed natural environment.

Our professional staff will help you plan a successful event and will provide services with a personal touch to make your stay enjoyable.

We look forward to serving you!

MSU is an affirmative-action, equal-opportunity employer.
